

Peace is a Fruit of the Spirit

Galatians 5:22-23, Genesis 26:12-33

Here's what happens...

Isaac has conflicts with various people over water rights. Instead of fighting, Isaac leaves each situation to find new water. In the end, he is able to find water and make a peace treaty.

Bible Point:

Peace is a fruit of the Spirit.

"But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against these things!" Galatians 5:22-23

Family Together Time

When we're friends with God, he helps us have peace in our hearts so we can share peace with others. Peace comes from God!

- Tell about a time you got in a fight with someone. How did you end up making peace?
- Whenever you're mad at someone in your family this week, give that person a cup of water as a reminder of how Isaac made peace. Talk about how you can work together toward peace. When you're done, shake hands to celebrate your truce.
- Pray together, thanking God for helping you make peace.
- Sing "Good in Every Way" as you praise God this week!

Talk About Video

Watch "A Moment of Peace" to see how God can bring peace in our lives.

- Tell about something in your life that doesn't feel peaceful.
- What parts in this family's day seemed the least peaceful to you? What did they remind you of in your own life?
- What can you learn from on how they regrouped and found peace?

When life gets crazy, things don't go our way or when we don't get along with others, God can bring us peace. Because peace is a fruit of the spirit!
